Curling Club Seeks Help From Grant

A. Langevin Heads Students' Union

LAC LA BICHE — Election of officers for the Students' Union of the Dr. Swift High School was held recently. The new executive are; President, Andre Langevin; vice-president, Pat Leibel; secretary, Irene Sachko; treasurer, Richard Hayduk; social convener, Miles Graham; girls' sport convener, Olga Mischuk; boys' sports convener, Don Dobson.

The retiring executive were: President, Jim McCormick; secretary, Joanne Cadzow; treasurer, Lynn Breau; social convener, Cecile Meardi; girls' sports convener, Martha Sorochan; boys' sports convener, Orville Franchuk.

Lac la Biche

Mr. and Mrs. George Eccleston and Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Bowness of Kimberly, B.C., were recent visitors at the home of Ronald's sister. Mrs. C. E. Chisholm.

Mike Hamar left March 16 for Calgary to attend a convention of the Retailers' Association. From there he flew to Miami, Fla., for a month's holiday in the sunny south.

Mrs. Mike Maccagno, who has been seriously ill in the General Hospital for a couple of weeks, is improving and is expected home at the weekend. Her many friends wish her a speedy and complete recovery.

Miss Alva Franchuk, who recently spent a couple of weeks vacation with relatives in Pittsburgh, Penn., is spending the remainder of her holidays at her home here. Alva journeyed to Pittsburgh by train, returning by air.

John Sandulac of Waterways believes he broke the record in travelling time from McMurray to Lac la Biche March 14. He made the trip in seven hours and 45 minutes, including one stop to fill up with gas. Since he carried his own filling station with him, he lost no time in chit-chat with the operator. He reported the road in good condition.

Cabbage Leaf Hat Wins Praise At Tea

LAC LA BICHE — The St. Patrick's Day tea sponsored by the Women's Auxiliary to the Canadian Legion and held in the Legion Hut March 16, was an outstanding success. The warm, sunny day added much to a pleasant afternoon.

Highlight of the affair was the modeling of original styles in ladies' summer hats. Many beautiful and unique creations were modeled by the ladies. Among those worthy of mention was a tall, closefitting model of cabbage leaves tastefully decorated with slender carrot strips, slices of fresh tomatoes and rosy radishes, worn by Mrs. Marion Bouvier. Also a cool, airy number fashioned by Mrs. J. Williams consisted of an inverted wire bird cage, ornamented with a yellow bird and held in place with mauve ribbon ties. Others were gay with spring flowers and some depicted the St. Patrick's Day theme.

Boys' Choir Will Appear On TV-CFRN

LAC LA BICHE — It has been announced that the Boys' Choir, under the direction of Mrs. L. Joncas, has been invited to go to Edmonton April 4 to be filmed on CFRN-TV. They will appear on television early in May. Congratulations are being received by Mrs. Joncas and her melodious group of boys, who are all under 12 years of age.

Enlarging Of Rink And Installing Water & Utilities Plan Of Group

LAC LA BICHE — The regular meeting of the town council was held in the town offices March 14 with Councillors McMillan, Vincent, Bouvier, Tkachuk and Hamar and Secretary Creighton present. In the absence of Mayor Maccagno, Deputy Mayor L. H. Vincent presided.

A delegation consisting of S. Odynak, N. Chodan, J. Olstad and M. Tarrabain, representing the Lac la Biche Curling Club, was present. They appealed to council for financial assistance from the Recreational Grant for the purpose of enlarging the curling rink and installing water, sewer and gas. The council informed the delegation that it would have to study the matter before giving a definite answer. Some voiced the opinion that the club should be expected to finance any additions to the rink, but if utilities could be extended to the building and made available as part of a general plan to develop the park and sports grounds, then the council would be ready to co-operate in any way possible.

One ratepayer was present to enquire if there was any likelihood of a portion of McLennan Street being closed and the land being classified as residential lots. The question was prompted as a result of a proposed re-plotting plan prepared by the Provincial Town Planner's Office some months ago. No clear answer could be given for the present, and the secretary was asked to write, asking for the return of a chart loaned to the town planner, which showed all details of the suggested alterations.

Fire Chief E. G. Dobson was present to ask for the right to purchase approximately $40 worth of needed fire-fighting equipment. Unanimous consent was given.

Jack Williams was present to speak on behalf of the local Sea Cadets. A letter was also read from a member of the Sea Cadet Committee dealing with the same matter. Mr. Williams asked if the council would consider alloting a portion of the Recreational Grant for the purpose of assisting the cadets to provide a suitable building in which to carry on their work. The secretary was asked to find out if this could be done and report to the next meeting of council.

The question of water and sewer extensions to the south side of town was again on the agenda. The secretary reported that a petition had been circulated in the area, but the number of signers was not sufficient to justify going ahead with the scheme and it appeared that the plan would have to be drastically revised or dropped altogether. Council felt that, since the cost of the extensions was more than the ratepayers of the area were willing to pay, the only course open was to drop the plan.

The secretary was instructed to make application for two winter works projects, one for alterations and improvements to the fire hall, and one for enlarging the curling rink.

The date for sitting of the court of revision to hear assessment appeals was set for April 4, in the town office, at 8:00 p.m.

A motion was passed accepting certain reductions in electric power rates to be effective until the expiry of the present franchise agreement with Northland Utilities Company. The franchise is due to expire in May of this year.

Big 32 Page Issue For "Country Life"

Big! That's the word for Alberta Country Life this week. This farm supplement which enters one in three farm homes in Alberta is still growing — 32 news-packed pages. This is the first time Alberta Country Life has hit 32, but it's proof that it is fast becoming the province's recognized farm weekly.

This week you'll find reports from the Alberta Legislature, stories on all phases of farming, news about women, religion, editorials and letters to the editor. The classified ad pages reach an audience of nearly 120,000 and is included in 24 weekly newspapers in Northern Alberta printed by Sun Publishing Co. Ltd.

Included is a five page section on the opening of Alberta's French radio station, CHFA Edmonton, which operates from expanded premises.

Grade 6 Students Canvass For UNICEF

In Lac la Biche in Mrs. Mastalers grade VI classroom, the pupils were organized to canvass for UNICEF, Hallowe'en night, and $18.55 were collected.

Some $2.13 was contributed by the pupils themselves in the classroom, making a grand total of $20.68, forwarded to the National UNICEF Committee. Mrs. Mastaler stated that plans are being made for a similar campaign for next Hallowe'en.

Aurel Langevin Wins First Prize In CYO Amateur Hour

LAC LA BICHE — A goodly crowd was on hand for the amateur program, sponsored by the Catholic Youth Organization and held in the Memorial Hall March 17, when first prize was awarded to Aurel Langevin for a French Canadian recitation. Other prize winners were: 2nd, Anita and Clara Senetza; 3rd, Dancers of the Virginia Reel.

Master-of-ceremonies for the evening was N. Chodan who, in his usual witty manner, kept the audience in a jovial mood as the different numbers were presented.

Hospital Error Kills Five Babies

"Suing the Grey Nuns Hospital won't bring our babies back," said the fathers of two of the five infants who died in Regina after a solution of boracic acid was mistakenly used as distilled water in some feeding formula at the nursery of Grey Nuns Hospital.

Sister Superior Rita Fortier said five others were affected by the poisonous formula, which hospital officials believe was mixed.

Of the 45 babies in the hospital nursery, 22 were being fed on formulas for all infants are prepared Sister Superior Fortier said it appeared seven or eight of the infants being fed on formula received the wrong solution.

"It just can't happen but it did," Sister Superior said.

"What appears to have happened is that a boracic acid solution ended up in a jug labelled distilled water and, in that form, was taken to the hospital formula room where all formula and 23 were being breast fed daily.

"Although it was impossible to determine what had caused the condition, boracic acid was suspected.

"Replacement transfusions were started on all seven beginning Thursday evening and working round the clock until Friday morning," Sister Superior said.

Canadian Red Cross international relief shipments, valued at nearly $400,000, were sent overseas last year.

Draft Of Bus Regulations Revision Being Considered

With the budget year nearly over, County of Athabasca School Committee meeting March 14 able to dispose of its business rapidly. The meeting was informed that the committee working on the revision of the bus regulations has made a draft of their recommendations.

The draft is at the office and will be studied by members for final reconsideration and eventual approval at the next meeting.

A special meeting of the ASTA has been called for Edmonton on March 24, for the purpose of discussing the new educational grant structure. Member Weldon and assistant-secretary treasurer A. Burzloff were named to attend.

Teachers' salaries were discussed and a report made on the A.S.T.A. Zone meeting.

Word was received that the Spurfield road is now a Forestry Road, and the government will be responsible for maintenance.

WILL DRESS CHARGES

The secretary reported two traffic violations under Section 79 of the Highway Traffic Act (passing a bus while loading or unloading pupils). The committee intends to press charges.

Accounts were read and approved.

An application to rent the greenhouse was refused as the committee wishes to repair and renovate in preparation for use next fall.

Recommendations from the Athabasca Health Unit in regard to several of the schools were reviewed. The matter is to be attended to, either now, or following the drawing up of the budget.

Two requests from teachers for leaves of absence to further education were received. G. Zytaruk will be attending the University of Washington during part of June, July and most of August. Richard Baker will be attending summer school at an American University.

Ron Hudspith, vice principal at Smith school, was granted $100 bonus for the 1959-60 term, in accordance with sec. 5 of the salary agreement.

HSA RECOMMENDATION

A recommendation was received from the Boyle Home and School Association for additional classrooms industrial arts and Home Economics facilities. The matter will be considered at budget time.

Don Corse was designated to attend the Principal's Leadership Course in Edmonton this summer.

Superintendent M. G. Gault reported on progress in schools. He had embarked on a teacher recruitment venture at the University of Alberta, arranged by the Unemployment Insurance Commission, and had interviewed seven teachers. He reported the teachers in training are doing satisfactorily.

Leroy Brundridge, building supervisor, reported on the building repairs and work in shop during the month. He estimated the work which should be done on school plants for the next school term.

NOTICE

A petition was recently circulated among ratepayers in the South part of the Town. It asked that the Town proceed with installation of water and sewer mains to serve that area, and agreed to a fixed rate of frontage tax for a period of 25 years.

The required two-thirds of ratepayers affected, and representing at least one half in value of the lands affected, were unwilling to sign the petition.

The Council therefore gives notice that plans for extension of water and sewer mains to that area are being dropped.

Advantages Of Co-op Store Named At Meet Attended By 150 Persons

PLAMONDON — About 150 adults, besides many children, attended the annual Co-op meeting in Plamondon on March 17.

Several films were shown and the meeting was then called to order by Martin Schaub. The minutes of the last annual meeting were read, by Claude Gauthier. The Financial report was read by Mr. Del Sproxton of the Alberta Co-operative wholesale. The financial report was explained fully and several discussions arose from this.

Stan Barton, director of the ACWA spoke briefly

Del Sproxton then spoke, outlining the advantages of the co-op store.

Jack Fraser of the hardware department, ACWA, spoke at length on the advantages that the joining of the Confederated Co-op would be to all the co-op stores, especially with regard to purchases and he stressed Co-op wholesale works for co-operatives but needs the support of all the local co-operatives, so that they in turn, can provide the stores with all their needs.

The directors report was then read by Martin Schaub.

The manager, Claude Gauthier, then spoke on behalf of the local staff. In his report he stressed the need for a new store in order to carry all the needs of the members. He stressed the need of Co-op members to use their own co-op store, stating it was to their own advantage. The report showed general sales were down a little from 1959, but gas sales had jumped tremendously since last year. He explained the dividend system and thanked the members and directors for their co-operation and time and effort given.

A discussion then took place regarding the building of a new store. A motion was made that, as soon as the directors obtained sufficient information a general meeting of all members would be called with regard to the building of the store.

Coffee and doughnuts were then served by Mr. and Mrs. Gauthier and staff.

GREEN ACRES

By Fred Strashok, District Agriculturist

The production and use of seed of pedigreed varieties of grasses and legumes in Canada remains very small despite the encouragement given by National Programs designed to the effort of stimulating production of seed and to acquaint producers with their advantages. It is estimated that less than ten per cent of grass and legume seed sown in Canada annually is of pedigreed varieties.

Since the area like Improvement District No. 102 grows quite a bit of legume seed the above would indicate that there are possibilities in this field in this area. Much of the small seeds grown in the district is of mediocre type because good seed was not used. For some that have land suitable for legume seed production a look into the use of pedigreed seed to produce pedigree seed for market may be worthwhile.

Improved varieties are developed in Canada largely at public institutions. Excellent progress has been made. Highly trained agricultural scientists known as plant breeders and located at experimental stations and universities across Canada, use scientific methods in producing new types of crop varieties. Many newer varieties of crops have characteristics which makes them superior in some way to the existing types. In order for these types to be used farmers must be able to obtain seed. Crop certification provides the methods by which seed is multiplied into larger quantities and made available to everyone.

In the last few years the red clover known as "double-cut" has gained popularity with forage producers in Eastern Canada and some foreign countries. To take advantage of this popularity, potential forage seed growers must see to it that they produce seed of this red clover and produce it as seed, that is, buy pedigreed seed and grow it out as pedigreed seed. Soon there will be very little market possibilities for seed grown as commercial crops.

Atmore

Mrs. Walter Aleksuik and Mrs. Walter Carse of Grassland, and Mrs. Jerome Johnson and Mrs. Ronald Matheson gathered at the home of Mrs. Sandy Karpetz to make plans for the Red Cross smorgasbord supper which will be held in the Grassland Community Center on Sunday, March 19.

Sandy Karpetz, accompanied by George Dowhaliuk of Blue Jay and Orval Jenkins of Grassland, motored to Athabasca to take the returning officers course. They will be the returning officers in their respective districts for the County of Athabasca election which will be held on March 18.

A number of the district residents attended the recent Home and School Association meeting held in the Grassland High school.

Mr. and Mrs. Sandy Karpetz attended the birthday party which was held in honor of Mrs. Paul Karpetz of Blue Jay.

Mr. and Mrs. John Konanchuk, Sylvia and Elsie of Grassland visited the Oscar Dakin family.

Mr. and Mrs. Mickey Shapka of Wandering River were recent visitors to the Sandy Karpetz home.

Mrs. Andre Germain is now helping her mother, Mrs. Arthur Boulanger, manager of the Atmore Cafe.

John Smar of Grimshaw is visiting the Arthur Boulanger family.

Several of the district residents attended Parents' Day at Grassland school on March 17. A program was held for the parents after they toured the classrooms.

Miss Margaret Dakin, Alvin Dakin and Elaine Boulanger, district students who attend Plamondon High School, motored to St. Paul via school bus, on March 19, to take part in the festival held there.

ATHABASCA

County Council Approves Tentative ASB Program

Business moved swiftly throughout the one day Athabasca county council meeting held March 16. Consideration and approval was given the tentative program of the Agricultural Service Board which provides for a comprehensive coverage of the board's activities.

Provision is made in the program for chemical weed control and the use of sterilints in needed cases; a program of tree planting; seeding road allowances; an estimated 3000 calves will be vaccinated under the Brusellosis program this year; roadside spraying and coyote and magpie control are all included in the program.

Four applications for land were considered, two were sold, one had been redeemed by the former owner and the other application was tabled for later consideration.

The financial statement was read.

ATHABASCA RINK

Chairman Loxam reported on the meeing he attended in regard to a new skating rink in Athabasca. He felt the aim was an arena, not a rink. All service clubs will be asked to canvass with the object of $2500 as a start. The County was not committed in any way.

The chairman and secretary W. J. Leskiw were delegated to attend the executive association meeting of reeves and secretaries on March 28.

Several welfare cases were considered. Welfare officer B. C. Hart was not present, as he was away in his duties of returning officer for the election on Saturday.

Five more applications for purchase of land were all approved.

A grazing lease was granted Reid Anderson on the SE21 and Se28-65-22-W4. Permit for a cattle crossing was granted W. R. Wight on SW 12-64-22-W4.

ROCHESTER STATION

A letter of appreciation was received from J. LeGrand of Rochester in regard to the work of the council in retaining the station agent at Rochester for one more year.

The date of the Court of Revision was set for the week commencing April 17. Five members will constitute the membership of the board, who will be appointed at the April 4 meeting. Rate of payment was set at $15 per day and 12c per mile. There have been forty appeals to date.

There was a short discussion on Civil Defence, the situation has not changed since a month ago. There has been no meeting.

Following supper and re-convening, the accounts were considered and approved.

SPRING BREAK-UP

Due to the forthcoming spring break-up, the council issued a warning to all residents and truck owners and operators, to listen for truck and road bans over the air CFRN and CJCA as soon as road conditions warrant it.

Max Blat and Dan Currie have been appointed control men in Electoral Division 9 during the ban period.

Parties

ATMORE — A baby shower party was held in honor of Mrs. Jack Campbell and infant daughter Vivian. Many of the district ladies attended.

Mr. and Mrs. William Ballard entertained 39 guests at a buffet supper on March 12. The occasion was the birthday of their friend Percy Lyans.

More than 11,000 wives and relatives of hospitalized veterans were overnight guests last year at eight Canadian Red Cross Lodges across Canada.

Accreditation Under Study By Home And School Association

HYLO — The regular meeting of the Hylo Home and School Association was held on Friday, March 17.

The Alberta Home and School news was distributed.

A letter from Mrs. Middleton regional director, informed the group that she will endeavor to be present at the Home and School Association meeting on Friday, April 21.

A reply from Eckville School was received in regards to music and their resolution was supported unanimously.

Mrs. O. Meardi gave up her privilege to go to the convention in Banff on March 21 to 24 to Mrs. O. Pivin who volunteered to go in the farmer's place.

President Mrs. O. Meardi gave the report from the resolution committee. Some of the resolutions under study were "Accreditation", which is meant to give autonomy in many important matters, including curriculum, to certain schools. Recommendation No. 20, if adopted, would mean that department examinations would cease, for external examinations set the curriculum and accredited schools would have the autonomy in curriculum.

The segregation of schools, teachers and pupils into two categories, one superior to the other would likely give rise to much friction and ill-feeling throughout the province. The rural areas would be discriminated against, the difficulty respecting texts, etc., which is already so apparent when students move from one province to another, would now arise when moving from one school to another.

Therefore it was favored that the Alberta Federation of HSA request the department of education not to institute a system of accreditation in this province but instead to produce for all grades courses of studies in which there will be rather definite statements of minimum standards to which all must adhere and a definite system to check on this minimum.

Evereyone was in favor of the prevocational, junior vocational on precitizen program. The students who failed Grade nine, or who were 15 years of age before reaching that grade, would be allowed to enter a Senior Vocational School after writing the Junior High School entrance examination. This would give students vocational training and specialized training in some skilled occupation. The name "Senior Vocational School" would replace the proposed name "Community Colleges", used in the Cameron Report.

In regards to languages, other than English taught at an earlier age was voted against.

It was agreed that a physical fitness program would benefit the children.

Some concern was expressed over the lack of properly trained welfare and social workers and it was urged that the provincial government establish training facilities for such personnel.

As to Easter holidays, students and teachers alike feel a great value in this break after the confined winter period and just before the review and final exams.

In regard to University residences, it was thought that the Alberta Federation of HSA should request the University of Alberta to provide more and better residences in Alberta Universities immediately.

In regard to resolution No. 16, minimum requirements of teachers, it was thought that two years of University training is ample and even fours years will turn out poor teachers. Perhaps screening as to character would be more worth while.

Also it was thought that students 21 years and under should be entitled to 12 years of education at public expense.

A number of other resolutions were discussed, rejected or favored. Then a number of Irish musical selections were played on the piano by Mrs. G. McEachern to mark the occasion of St. Patrick's Day. Mrs. C. Meardi, who guessed the most of the musical selections, won a prize.

Lunch, served by Mrs. J. Meardi and Mrs. K. Sachko, concluded an interesting and enjoyable meeting.

Grassland

Mr. and Mrs. John Bluda are receiving congratulations on the birth of a baby boy born at Athabasca.

Jack Davidiuk, who injured his back while curling at Grassland, has returned from the hospital at Lac la Biche.

Warm weather has put an end to curling at the Grassland rink.

Parents' Day was held at the Grassland School recently with a large attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Murowchuk of Barrhead were recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Derko recently made a brief visit to Edmonton.

Bill Sakulich has returned from Calgary where he was taking an electrical course at the Institute of Art and Technology.

Hylo Ratepayers To Hold Meeting

A special meeting will be held on Friday, by ratepayers of Hylo School. April 7 at 8 p.m. in the Hylo School. Noral ratepayers are invited to attend.Urgent School business will be discussed.

All interested please make an effort to be present.

THE Homemaker

By BERTHA M. McCUTCHEON

B. McCutcheon

This is the time of year to have a look at last summer's clothing. The children will have grown taller and perhaps broader. Try on the garments. Some may do by letting down hems, others may have to be handed down to younger members of the family. If the former hem leaves a mark, cover with a row of bias or rickrack. Decide now what new garments will be necessary and put them on your list with sizes and other suggestions. If you plan to make summer garments, purchase the fabrics now while there is a good selection.

REMAKES

A garment worth remaking is worth the same quality work as a new one. Good construction will help to give a "new" look.

Select designs—easy to make, easy to iron. Make certain that all clothing is easy to get in and out of. Buttons should not be too large, too tiny or too numerous, for inexperienced fingers soon lose patience.

Wise mothers reinforce small boy's overalls with knee patches; jackets with elbow patches. Deep, sturdily constructed pockets are "musts" to hold everything from bicycle bolts to a handful of peanuts.

As a rule school age girls are very active too and like freedom of movement in their clothing. Provide this in girls' dresses with gathered skirts, dresses with yokes and shirring in front and back. Armholes should be roomy. Raglan sleeves give added comfort.

Prior to cutting or ripping a garment to be remodelled, try the pattern on the fabric. Avoid unnecessary ripping. Using fabric which is excessively worn, moth eaten or stained is unwise. Do some invisible mending. Try using spot remover on stubborn stains. Wash or dry clean the garment before remaking. Re-dye if cloth is faded or not suitable for the child. If the garment is quite streaked, it may be necessary to remove the color before re-dyeing.

Use a seam finish appropriate for the fabric—French seams for lightweight materials, pinked seams for cottons and heavier fabrics. Edge stitching is a great strengthener; keep stitching close to the edge for ironing ease.

Any trim should last the life of the garment. It should add interest, preferably a touch of color and should be worth the time spent to make it. A new trim often disguises the fact that the garment has been made over but it should be suited to the size of the garment and the age of the child.

Lubrication Method Must Change, Too . . .

The "horseless carriage" could hardly meet the challenge of the modern automobile in durability, speed, safety and beauty.

Yet, in its day, it was the last word. Imperial methods of manufacture and scientific advances have brought with them improved cars. Hand in hand with this progress has come improved methods and equipment for lubrication. "In their day" these out-worn methods were alright but today they're out of step with the times. For modern lubrication we advise you to stop here.
